

Workshop Overview

Roadmap to Testing Reading: Background

- 10th annual STANAG 6001 testing workshop
- Opportunity to keep the STANAG 6001 testing community connected
- Norming across the nations
- Updates on STANAG 6001 testing

- Feedback from the 2019 workshop in Tours
 - Try to make all workshops as interactive as possible

- First-ever online testing workshop in 2020
 - How can we make this workshop interactive within the limitations of an online platform?

Roadmap to Testing Reading: Pros and Cons of a Virtual Workshop

Advantages

- Chance to keep the STANAG 6001 testing community connected
- More national STANAG 6001 testers can participate
- Opportunity to learn from each other about their experiences developing and administering STANAG 6001 tests during COVID-19 times
- Can try out online item moderation with multinational participation

Challenges/Unknowns

- Issues with technology and comfort with online forums across the nations
- Time zone differences
- Is online norming and online item moderation effective?

Roadmap to Testing Reading: Data

Total in plenary	96 from 31 nations
Plenary speakers	9
Small group sessions
Participants	59
Facilitators	10
Item moderation sessions
Panel members	37
Room moderators	14 from 7 nations
Ask the Experts
Panel members	5

Roadmap to Testing Reading: Program

Plenary sessions- one link to the Plenary Room

- 1400-1530 on Tuesday 8 Sept and Wednesday 9 Sept
- 1545-1700 on Thursday, 10 Sept

Small group sessions - 8 different links for the Small Group Rooms

- 1600-1700 on Tuesday 8 Sept and Wednesday 9 Sept
- Chance for you to speak, discuss, interact
- 8 topics

Item moderation sessions led by members of the Shared Item Bank WG - links to rooms will be sent later

- 1400-1530 on Thursday 8 Sept
- 6 rooms

In memory of Roxane Harrison

2020 STANAG 6001 Testing Workshop 8-10 September 2020 The Roadmap to Testing Reading

