

BILC Professional Seminar

Language Training in Times of Crises:

Challenges and Opportunities

19-23 October 2020

Bureau for International Language Co-ordination
www.natobilc.org

SEMINAR DATA

- First virtual BILC Professional Seminar
- 85 registered participants
- 35 nations, 1 NATO HQ
- 18 time zones
- 1 keynote speech and 18 presentations on the seminar theme
- 6 presentations by BILC, the host nation and future hosts
- 4 panels
- Speakers from 18 nations

SEMINAR PROGRAM

- Monday - Thursday, 1400-1700 (CEST)
- Friday, 1400-1530 (CEST)

Plenary presentations

- Only the speakers will be able to use their mics and cameras

Panels on the following day

- Chance to get answers to your questions

2020 BILC Professional Seminar

Do you want to ask questions?
You can!!!

Email your questions to the Panel Moderator. The name and email address will be on a slide at the close of the seminar each day.

Bureau for International Language Co-ordination
www.natobilc.org

BILC Professional Seminar

Now we have a question for you.
Do you have observers?

If so, email the BILC Chair, Branka Petek with the number of observers.

Branka.Petek@mors.si

Bureau for International Language Co-ordination
www.natobilc.org

BILC Professional Seminar

Language Training in Times of Crises:
Challenges and Opportunities

What are the challenges?
What are the opportunities?

Bureau for International Language Co-ordination
www.natobilc.org

