

NATIONAL DEFENCE FOREIGN LANGUAGES TESTING CENTER

Col. Corina ISPAS
Head of NDFLTC

AGENDA

- History
- Mission
- Chain of command
- Types of testing sessions
- Achievements
- Priorities
- Way ahead

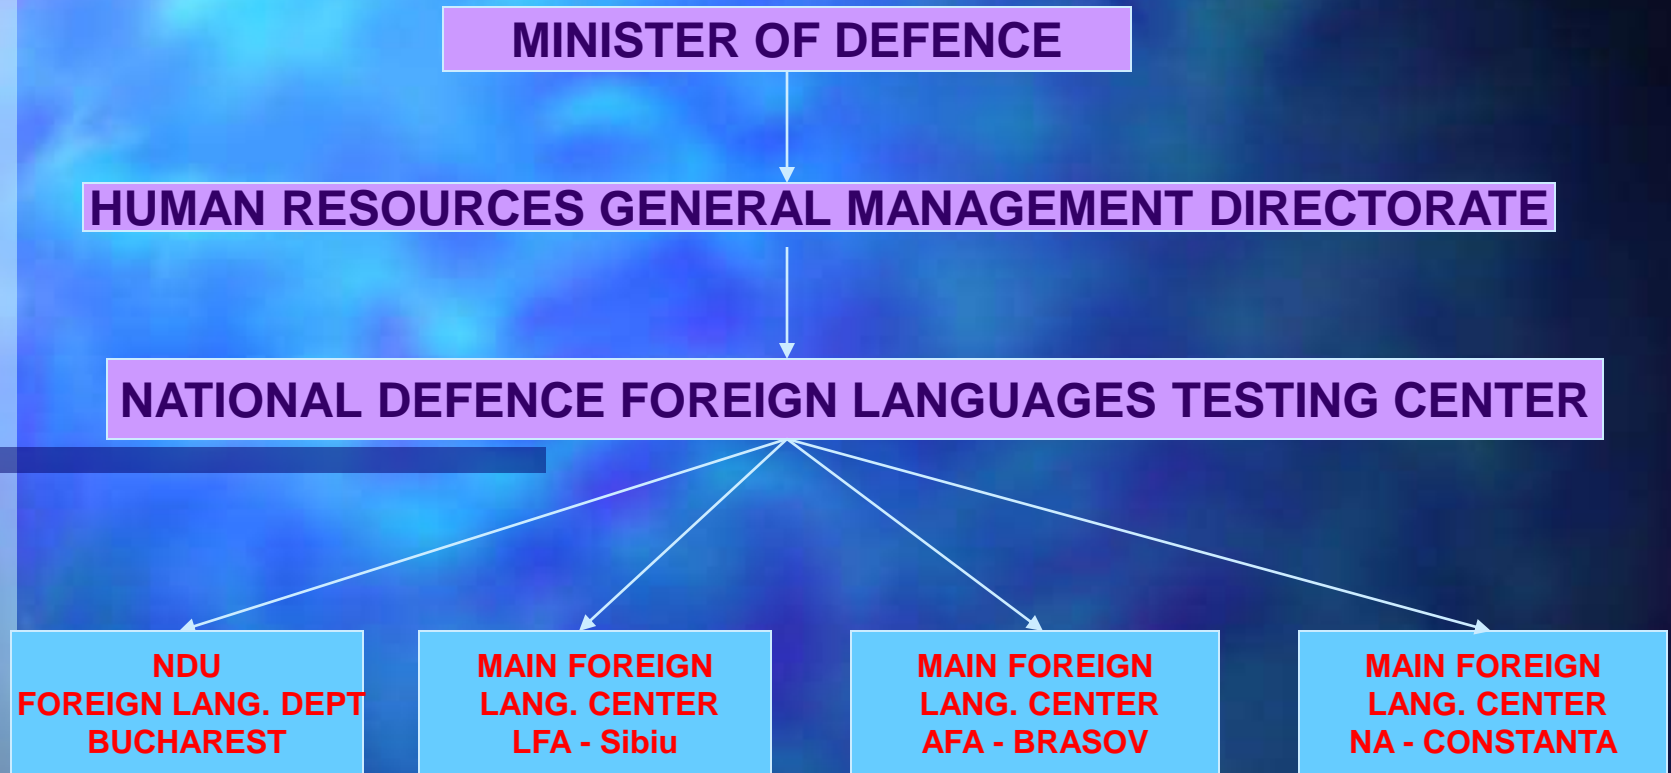

HISTORY

- NDFLTC was established on March 2008 by Ministerial Order
- Directly subordinated to HRGMD, sole responsible for testing SLP iaw STANAG 6001
- Background – a RoTS since 2002 empowered by Ministerial Directive to establish policy and procedures used for all proficiency and achievement tests also able to manage and administer all proficiency tests

MISSION

To evaluate MoD personnel according to STANAG 6001 in order to support a wide range of operations

NATIONAL DEFENCE LANGUAGE TESTING SYSTEM

LEGEND

NDU – NATIONAL DEFENCE UNIVERSITY
LFA – LAND FORCES ACADEMY
AFA – AIR FORCE ACADEMY
NA – NAVY ACADEMY

TYPES OF TESTING SESSIONS

- Multilevel STANAG 6001 tests of English, French, German
- 2 ordinary yearly national sessions
- 1 session for NATO and National Rep.posts
- High rank officers
- Staff officers
- Deployable troops
- Civilians working within MoD
- Others on order

TESTING PRIORITIES

- ❑ Target Force TCE 1101 “Language Proficiency of the Deployable Force”
- ❑ Personnel to fill positions in NATO HQs
- ❑ Participants to incountry/abroad training modules- on request
- ❑ Career accession

WAYS AHEAD

- Work with Regional teams to further develop and validate levels 1, 2, 3 English, French and German proficiency tests
- Establish testing priorities for strategic languages
- Developing a STANAG Candidate booklet that includes a training test booklet
- Enlarge NDFLTC and expand its mission

Questions?

Thank you!