

ESP for Professional Communication: Two Skills, Two Models

Writing Strategies for Staff Officers Course

Partner Language Training Center Europe (PLTCE)

Communication Skills for Security Professionals

- Blend of synchronous sessions and asynchronous work
- Weekly conferences with facilitators for tailored feedback
- New concepts: KISS, BLUF, using AI for emails
- Autonomous learning via microlessons and ELTEC2

- 3-hour facilitator-led sessions three times a week
- Tasks include a 2-minute speech without visuals and a 7-minute presentation with visuals
- Panel discussions on current global security issues
- Impactful communication through tailoring the message to the audience

Learning Objectives

- Learn and apply the principles of the writing process
- Produce clear and concise writing
- Learn and apply effective email writing tips
- Develop editing skills
- Become familiarized with online tools for writing

Target Audience

Ukrainian staff officers with international military cooperation duties

International government officials in a post-graduate security studies course

Learning Objectives

- Apply effective verbal and non-verbal communication strategies when presenting
- Produce and deliver presentations on security topics
- Use effective techniques for handling questions
- Provide constructive feedback